

Fees Overview

The lettings sector has often come under scrutiny for Letting Agents having hidden fees and that is why as of 2015, all Lettings Agents had to list their fees on their website and on display in their office. There seems to be an unlimited list of extras added on to the standard fees that letting agents charge.

We are the only local agent that offers these 'extras' under a very competitive fee to simplify things and give our clients the best possible deal. We do not add a commission to any works carried out. What the contractors charge is what you pay. We believe in passing the savings to you.
